Caslow & Associates, Full-Service CPA Firm, Announces Office Opening in Altamonte Springs

ORLANDO, FL (March 20, 2009) - Sharon Caslow, a long-standing resident of Winter Springs, Florida, is pleased to announce the opening of Caslow & Associates, LLC, a full-service CPA firm, located in Altamonte Springs. Caslow & Associates is a full-service, CPA firm, providing organizations throughout Central Florida with affordable, outsourced professional business services, including bookkeeping, general accounting, tax preparation and consultancy, and game-changing “virtual-CFO” business intelligence. Sharon brings with her a rich history as a Certified Public Accountant and former Chief Financial Officer of a prominent Central Florida homebuilder, and a deep understanding of the challenges facing clients within all business industries and segments. Sharon’s keen business acumen and broad tax knowledge allows her to provide her clients with a personalized, hands-on approach to aid in proactively managing all aspects of their business, including budgeting and forecasting, operations and financial management, tax preparation and strategy, as well as contract review and negotiation consultancy. “We are not just another accounting firm,” explains Sharon. As part of the companies’ vision and expanded service offering, Sharon has recently announced a partnership with leading business accounting software provider Integrated Business Group. “We are on the cutting edge of efficiency and technology...and have the ability to leverage our expertise to help business owners throughout Central Florida”, commented Sharon. “Establishing business partnerships and strongholds with leaders such as Integrated Business Group will provide local business owners with an assortment of services, all under one roof – hugely beneficial!” Caslow & Associates is now accepting new clients, and is offering a free initial tax review and consultation to local businesses.
